Samsung UHD TVs come with a One Connect box with the Evolution Kit built in. The Evolution Kit allows you to upgrade your connectivity with more connection ports and enables you to update the hardware and software on your UHD TV. Please check www.samsung.com for more details before installing Evolution Kit. Page 2 All specifications are subject to change. Now you can stay up to date with the latest innovations in Smart TV technology.  One Connect with built-in Evolution Kit box sold separately. Screen images are simulated. UHD content looks spectacular in crisp 4K resolution and thanks to Samsung's proprietary up-scaling technology, it converts Full HD, HD and lower resolution sources to nearly-UHD clarity through a unique four-step process, so everything looks better. Now you can watch everything on your TV in the highest resolution possible. Keep your UHD TV on the cutting edge Smart TVs are constantly evolving, but that doesn't mean you need to purchase a new TV every time there's an improvement. Evolution Kit improvement levels are limited to year of launch and application availability. 85"75" 65"55"50"UHD UpscalingSmart EvolutionExperience visually stunning UHD picture qualityWith four times the pixel count of Full HD,* Samsung's HU8550 UHD TV oers unsurpassed picture quality.
